PayPal Payments Account Overview

PayPal charges 4.4% + $0.30 USD per transaction. You can find more info with regards to the fees here.

PayPal offers 3 levels of merchant accounts:

- 1) PayPal Payments Standard – the basic package, with no monthly fees, is your best bet if your business is just starting out.
- 2) PayPal Payments Advanced – with this mid-range plan, checkout happens on the website rather than being redirected to PayPal's site
- 3) PayPal Payments Pro – this is the most full-featured plan, allowing you to integrate payment seamlessly in your website, with total control over look and feel of the payment process

PayPal Payments Standard Details

Most customers choose to start off with PayPal Payments Standard (the basic PayPal plan). Here's how it works:

- With PayPal activated on your , your customers will be able to choose PayPal during checkout.
- Once a customer confirms his order and provides shipping and billing details, he will be redirected to the PayPal website in order to make payment for the purchase.
- PayPal Payments Standard allows customers the choice of either signing into their PayPal account or not signing in and paying for their transaction by credit card. PayPal Payments Standard accepts credit/debit cards (Visa/Delta/Electron, MasterCard/Eurocard, PayPal Top Up Card, Maestro, and American Express) and PayPal payments.
- Customers get directed back to the 'Thank You' page on your immediately after they pay (or cancel a transaction).
- Your will automatically create an order and an invoice. An order confirmation email with the customer order number and purchase details will be sent to your customer.
- You can track your cash inflow and outflow by sales, refunds and fees, for monthly, daily or custom periods.
- PayPal will charge you a percentage fee and a flat fee per transaction (view PayPal fees)
